

CAMP TERROR 2023

FrankHurley.Org

Extensive biographical material on Australian Frank Hurley, his involvement in, and photographs of, Sir Ernest Shackleton's Endurance expedition, October, 1914 – April, 1917.

EXAMPLES BELOW — CHECK THE WEBSITE FOR MORE

MOST REQUESTS ARE FILLED THROUGH EMAIL. MEMORY-HEAVY FILES WILL REQUIRE YOUR THUMB DRIVE AND RETURN POSTAGE.

Endurance diaries. Hurley; Orde-Lees; McNish; Worsley (incomplete; includes voyage of the James Caird).

Film. BFI sequential thumbnails of the 2001 South! remake with notes by Brenda Hudson; another file concerning the 2021 edit.

Notes. Over a dozen significant files detailing Hurley's personality, photos, and camera methods. Includes live interviews with Toni and Adelie Hurley in Scottsdale, AZ, on a cam corder in 1998; digitized 2023. Memory-heavy.

Photographs. 14 different files and a book (List of Images) detail the location and call number of any Endurance expedition photo for any archive, with extensive supporting information on over 500 images.

Scripts for a cine-lantern show by Hurley; a 120-image magic lantern show by Charles Green; Worsley's script for the 'Glorious Failure' film.

Shackleton's Photographer is an illustrated expedition diary in the hand of Frank Hurley. Every day of the expedition is accounted for. Taken from original source material and other expedition diarists. 343 pages; footnotes galore. ISBN 0-9703148-2-5.

Original image

Altered negative

"The Rescue"